

BEST BOOKS FOR KIDS & TEENS

Reach the People Who Buy Canadian Children's Books!

TEACHERS, LIBRARIANS, CURRICULUM CONSULTANTS, BOOKSELLERS & PARENTS

The two great publications, our extensive website and the new online edition of Best Books for Kids & Teens showcase the best in Canadian children's books.

Best Books for Kids & Teens, the authoritative semi-annual consumer guide, presents the tops in recently published Canadian books, magazines, audio and video. All are selected by expert panels across the country. The online edition of Best Books for Kids & Teens highlights the best Canadian materials in a database easily searchable by anyone stocking a bookshelf in a classroom, library or at home.

Canadian Children's Book News is packed with book reviews, annotated reading lists, author and illustrator profiles and more. Published quarterly by season, it is read and re-read as the guide to Canadian children's books.

The Canadian Children's Book Centre's website – www.bookcentre.ca – offers extensive resources and guides for the educational and trade markets with up-to-the minute information and valuable resources for teachers and parents.

TESTIMONIAL FROM A READER

“The Canadian Children’s Book News is an amazing resource review publication that is used consistently at the Halton District School Board to aid in the selection of school library resources and as an awareness tool about the issues, programs, publishers, etc. that affect our library environment. We especially love the Best Books for Kids & Teens compilation as it easily identifies the essential resources for our school-aged audiences. Thanks to the Canadian Children’s Book Centre for ensuring these publications are available to us.”

– Lynn Wisniewski
Manager of Instructional Media, Library Services
Halton District School Board
