

Amy Mathers Teen Book Award

SUBMISSION & CRITERIA INFORMATION

The Amy Mathers Teen Book Award honours excellence in novels written for the Teen/Young Adult audience. The celebration of diversity is an equally significant element to achieving excellence. A work of excellence in Canadian children's literature should also be successful in making people feel a sense of belonging in their communities.

Criteria:

- All genres of fictional teen books are eligible (e.g., historical fiction, contemporary fiction, science fiction, fantasy, mystery, etc.).
- Text and any illustrations (for example, in the case of graphic novels) should be of high quality, with:
 - a well-structured plot;
 - rich language;
 - well-developed characters;
 - an engaging narrative with good pacing.
- Elements of the story that draw upon or are inspired by real cultures, folklore and history should be done respectfully and authentically.
- Text should be appropriate for the intended audience (ages 13 to 18).

Eligibility Requirements:

- Books must be published between January 1 and December 31, 2022.
- Both the author and illustrator (in the case of graphic novels) must be Canadian citizens or permanent residents of Canada.
- Books may be published in Canada or abroad.
- Books must be first foreign or first Canadian editions. New editions or re-issues of previously published titles are not eligible for submission.
- Books must be in English.
- Translations are eligible, provided the translator is a Canadian citizen or permanent resident of Canada.
- The book should be aimed at teenage readers aged 13 to 18 years old. Adult books are not eligible.
- Graphic novels are eligible.
- Short story collections by more than one author are not eligible.
- Hi-lo books are not eligible.
- Books must be works of fiction. Non-fiction books are not eligible. For non-fiction, please see Norma Fleck Award for Canadian Children's Non-Fiction.
- Stories must be original; while stories inspired by classic works such as fairy tales are permissible, retellings of original stories are not.
- Books written as part of a series or published in serial form will be judged as separate entries and must function as a 'stand-alone' story.
- The award is only for books in the printed format, as distinct from digital (i.e., eBooks) and audio-visual formats.
- Books in manuscript form are not eligible.
- All books must have an ISBN and be distributed in Canada.
- Self-published books are eligible for submission provided they have a valid ISBN.

Publisher and creator expectations prior to submission:

- Publishers agree to pay the $35 non-refundable submission fee per title per award.
- If a book is shortlisted, the publisher, author and illustrator may be asked to participate in a series of events highlighting and promoting the shortlisted author and illustrator, in addition to the award celebration.
- The CCBC is unable to assume the costs for travel and accommodation. It is our hope that publishers will assist the award winner(s) with providing the resources for attending the in-person awards ceremony (should we be able to hold an in-person event) or for creating an acceptance speech video of appropriate quality should the creator(s) be unable to attend an in-person event.
- Publishers agree to prepare and encourage their authors and illustrators to participate in all reasonable publicity associated with the award: interviews, readings, appearances, etc.
- Publishers agree to spend an appropriate sum on media advertising the winning book (i.e., whatever your advertising budget allows).
